Position: Production Forester-1703353

Location: Medford, OR

General Directive: This position will have responsibilities for all road building/engineering related activities which are not limited to but may include planning, budgeting, permitting, and contract supervision. Other duties as assigned may include oversight of logging production, land surveying contract development and supervision. Interaction with BLM /US Forest Service and other cooperators around road use and license development related to log hauling. Provide assistance as needed in McCloud California planning and management of road building activities related to harvest.

Scope:
- The southern Oregon region encompasses approximately 130,000 acres.
- Develop and maintain relationships with regulatory agencies, concerned stakeholders, HFM staff, and HTRG staff
- Harvest operations, transportation systems, and land management with primary focus in engineering.
- Become familiar with all road use agreements and licenses
- Become familiar with timberland accounting, inventory/GIS, silvicultural operations permitting, and general forestry operations.
- Position reports to Southern Oregon marketing manager

Duties:
- Engineering activities including road layout, contracting, and administration
- Development of annual property budgets and forecasts
- Implement and adhere to risk management and safe work procedures.
- Sustainable Forestry Initiative (SFI) compliance
- Risk Management
- Basic mapping tasks with ArcMap
- Support HNRG groups such as Acquisitions, Client Account Group, etc.
- Special projects as requested or needed.

Requirements:
- A bachelor’s degree in Forest Engineering, Forest Management or related field
- Five years of experience in applicable forestry experience
- Strong organizational skills
- Demonstrated skills in all Microsoft Office products (Word, Excel, Access, Outlook) highly desirable
- Reasonable user skills in GIS, ArcMap
- Team player with ability to work with others’ needs and with different personalities
- Highly motivated and entrepreneurial
- Strong oral and written communication skills
- Working knowledge of Oregon Forest Practices rules and regulations

Hancock Forest Management offers a competitive compensation and benefit package, a team oriented work environment and growth opportunities for its employees.

Hancock Natural Resource Group is committed to being an equal opportunity employer. The Company is committed to employ, train, promote and compensate individuals based on job-related qualifications and ability without regard to race, color, gender identity, disability, sexual orientation, religion, national origin, age, veteran or marital status.

Qualified candidates should apply online or send a cover letter, resume, and transcript in Microsoft Word or Adobe PDF format to jobs@hnrag.com by 4/7/2017. Please include salary requirements.